

Contact us

Our main administrative centre is close to the GMC in Manchester. We also have a London administrative centre. Conferences can be held in many towns and cities, and we stay in touch by post, email, telephone, videoconference, and face to face. Wherever you live we can handle your case. With modern technology you need no longer use a local non-specialist solicitor. Our highly specialist lawyers are some of the most experienced regulatory law lawyers in the country, with a track record of appearing in GMC/MPTS cases.
